The Survey Instruments

Research-Backed Instruments

RIDE Rhode Island
Department
of Education

- Rhode Island will administer the Panorama Student Survey, Panorama Teacher/Staff Survey, Family Relationships Survey, and Building Administrator survey with some custom items developed by focus groups across Rhode Island.
- Surveys are developed by a research team at Harvard, led by Dr. Hunter Gehlbach and Dr. Karen Mapp.
- Each survey is tailored to the stakeholder group. The survey topics were selected by a broad cross-section of focus groups across Rhode Island, including teachers, school counselors, parents, and students.

Best Practices in Survey Methodology

RIDE Rhode Island
Department
of Education

- ✓ Surveys focus on important topics, or “scales,” that students, teachers, and families are equipped to provide feedback on.
- ✓ Items are constructed as questions that focus on a single construct, have clearly defined response anchors, and are framed positively.

Frequently Asked Questions

RIDE Rhode Island
Department
of Education

Q: How much time should we budget for student surveys?

- We recommend budgeting at least a full class period for surveys (30-40 mins for survey taking for students and teachers/support professionals).

Q: Are survey responses saved partway through the survey?

- Responses are only saved when the blue submit button is selected.

Q: I can't access a survey after I typed in the access code.

- Make sure all appropriate digits (including 0s) are entered and that access code is entered during the appropriate survey window (1/14-3/31 for all surveys).
- The case of the letters in an access code also matter; 01234TEACHER will not work. 01234teacher will work.

Q: What if someone submitted a survey or a browser crashed before surveys were completed?

- If the “Thank you” screen did not appear, the respondent should retake the survey.

For any questions during the survey window, reach out to support+ride@panoramaed.com with your school and district name, and your question.

Frequently Asked Questions

RIDE Rhode Island
Department
of Education

Q: Who is a “support professional”?

- Support Professionals are part of RIDE’s Support Professional Evaluation framework.
- School Nurse Teachers, Social Workers, School Psychologists, School Counselors, Speech Language Pathologists
- Library Media Specialists, Reading Specialists/Consultants, Math Specialists/Consultants, ESL Specialists/Consultants, Instructional Leaders

Q: Should parents complete the family survey once per child/combination that they have?

- We encourage parents to complete a survey for each school that they have a child attending. This is so that we can be respectful of parents’ time.
- There are some circumstances where a different approach might make more sense:
- In the circumstance where a parent has two children in the same school with drastically different experiences, they may complete two surveys.
- In the circumstance where a parent has two children in the same school and one has an IEP, we’d encourage parents to submit two responses to capture the data on those different experiences.

For any questions during the survey window, reach out to support+ride@panoramaed.com with your school and district name, and your question.
